

Croatian for travellers

Version 3.0

by Anna Zgorelec, Webmaster of Visit Croatia

Welcome to the Croatian for Travellers language guide. I have chosen the most common words and phrase that you are likely to use and encounter on a trip or holiday to Croatia. Just below is a short pronunciation guide to help you with some of the unique Croatian letters (č, ć, dž, đ, lj, nj, š and ž), as well with some other letters.

Have fun!

A Few Words About Croatian Pronunciation

Croatian words are pronounced exactly how they are spelt. This may not be such great advice to those who are having trouble reading Croatian but it is just a reminder that all letters and syllables in words are pronounced and there are no silent letters (unlike in English!).

As a general rule of thumb, Croatian vowels are short.

Pronunciation of Letters

Letter	Pronunciation
c	like ts in lets

I hope this guide will make your holiday in Croatia more enjoyable. If you are really stuck and have difficulty in being understood or need other language help, approach a young person as they all understand and speak some English. You can also go to the nearest tourist office, as the staff there will definitely speak English and be able to help you (as well as answering your travel queries). Please note that Croats are always eager and ready to help. Have a good holiday!!

P.S. I would appreciate all your comments and suggestions about this language guide - please email me at webmaster@visit-croatia.co.uk! Please also tell us and everyone else about your holiday experience in Croatia on our message board at www.visit-croatia.co.uk.
